January 1998

Dear Friends and Colleagues:

The annual Long Trip was a college tradition in which Bank Street students and faculty traveled to a region of special interest and studied as they traveled together. This year's planned trip to Santa Fe, New Mexico will provide faculty, alumni and friends of Bank Street a wonderful opportunity to visit another part of the country with a rich heritage and to learn from each other as well as from educators and storytellers with whom we will meet.

The journey to Santa Fe will begin on Monday, April 13 and will end on Sunday, April 19, 1998. Of course, you may stay for a longer time on your own. Activities will include a Welcome Dinner, an Introduction to Santa Fe and a Seminar on Monday evening. During the week, we will visit two pueblos, schools, museums and galleries and participate in workshops and seminars and learn about the stories, the art and history of the Southwest along with other activities and experiences.

Santa Fe is the oldest capital in the United States and has a unique blend of Spanish history, Native American influences and contemporary artistic culture.

We hope that you will join us on this exciting journey. Meeting, sharing and learning from a diverse group of artists and educators each day will be an important aspect of our Long Trip.

A tentative schedule is attached for your review and information. Please call me at (212) 875-4504 or Elva Berger at (212) 875-4513 should you have any questions or to register with a credit card.
