

PREPARED TO TEACH

SUSTAINABLE FUNDING FOR QUALITY TEACHER PREPARATION

PROFESSIONAL PREPARATION

One of these things is not like the others.

Novice teachers need practice—just like doctors, engineers, and other professionals do. When we don't require fieldwork for teachers, we undermine the profession. Teachers deserve the chance to learn, practice, and test their skills. Right now, our system doesn't afford them that opportunity.

We've moved!

As of July 2023, Prepared To Teach has transitioned into a national organization. Resources produced while we were incubated at Bank Street remain on Educate.
